Presenting cPhour!

New York based “cPhour” consists of Ryan Berg (Bass), Stacy Dillard (Sax), Craig Magnano (Guitar), and Jeremy Clemons (Drums) who began playing together on the NYC music scene in the early 2000’s. cPhour’s music pushes the envelope of the jazz idiom allowing room for influences of many genres while maintaining respect for the music that came before them. Their combined voices project a magical energy stemming from a deep love and playful regard for life and music. They appeal to a very broad audience; young and old worldwide. It is with that appeal, energy, and love that they bring their music to you. cPhour: Striving for something new, something fresh, and always true.

“They are the best band of their generation.” –Jazz great Frank Lacy

"I have never felt so free to play anything as when I played with them!" – Joio Kuo, percussionist with Fela Kuti
